On arrival, drive to Khajuraho, famous for its beautiful sandstone sculptured temples—approx 4 ½ hours drive). En-route visit Orchha Temples. Evening enjoy a fascinating ‘Son-et-Lumiere’ in the complex of the temples, which traces the story of these unique temples from 10th century to the present day.
In Khajuraho stay at The Lalit for 1 night.

Day 2 Khajuraho—Varanasi

Early morning optional activity—Yoga session at sunrise with an expert at poolside of your hotel.
Morning Board bullock carts for the ride through the beautiful countryside up to the Western group of temples (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), Yonigini Temples & Jain Temples. Interesting talk on the erotic temples of Khajuraho and their significance in the evolution of temple architecture. Transfer to the temples.
Afternoon flight to Varanasi, (one of the oldest living cities in the world) by Jet Airways 9W 724—1:30pm - 2:10pm.
Evening visit the ghats (hundreds of stone steps flanking the riverbank) to witness a special Hindu ‘aarti’ prayer ceremony by the Ganges River. A specialist will give a spiritual course on Hindu religion and the significance of Ganges River.
Stay at the elegantly restored Nadesar Palace for 2 nights.

Day 3 Varanasi

At dawn take a boat ride on the Ganges—an incredible sight, when thousands of pilgrims bathe in the spiritually cleansing waters. Return to hotel for breakfast.
Orientation tour of the city—visiting Banaras Hindu University & Bharat Mata Temple.
Afternoon excursion to Sarnath where Lord Buddha had preached his first sermon. Also visit the archeological museum* at Sarnath. *Closed on Friday
Time permitting experience a special meeting with monks and take part in Buddhist meditation session.
